Celebrations

EC students did well on Extend I Testing.

Fourth grade students made growth on EOG.

Mrs. Ensminger complimented the staff on doing an exceptional job completing all end of year activities.

Annual Programs Review

The SIT completed an annual programs review for the district office. Mrs. Faircloth requested a copy of our responses to be sent to her.

Discipline Report

Mrs. Ruffin presented an up to date discipline report to the SIT. As of June 6, 2017, there have been 73 discipline referrals. The breakdown is as follows:

91% male

8 % female

80% black

11% white

50% of discipline referrals were from issues in classrooms.

Eureka Math Program Review

The SIT completed a review of the Eureka Math program for the district office.

School Improvement Plan

Mrs. Faircloth informed the team that ETP will be implementing NC Star as our SIP platform for the school year 2016-2017. The entire district will be using this program next year. The NC Star program has 12 indicators that all schools must address.

PD Design Team

A motion to rescind the decision that made Whitney Hern the ETP representative on the PD Design team was made by Joy Frith and seconded by Stephanie Ensminger. This motion also stated that Melanie Wohlford was to remain as representative on the PD Design team. The motion carried unanimously.

New ELA Standards

New ELA Standards have been approved for NC public schools. There will be training in the fall. Standards will be implemented in the 2018-2019 school year.

Theme for SY 2017-2018

Two themes were mentioned for next school year. Outer space and Disney were the themes that were brought to the table. Grade levels should discuss and come up with ideas for the July SIT meeting.

Guidelines for Choosing Good Citizens

There should be some kind of uniform criteria for choosing good citizens. This discussion is tabled for the July SIT meeting.

Concerns

The planning retreat for SIT will be July 11-12. The retreat will begin at 9:00 a. m. each morning.

A motion to adjourn the meeting was made by Christy Babson and seconded by Tonya Bryan. The motion carried unanimously and the meeting was adjourned at 4:17 p.m.
